Finding

The liability reported for compensated absences was understated by approximately $2,400 due to the inadvertent omission of compensatory time from the reported liability.

Management’s Response

The Ethics Commission has never paid out comp time to any employee during the entire time the Ethics Commission has existed. As a result, we did not recognize that we needed to account for comp time in the reports filed with the Comptroller General’s Office. We have made the necessary changes to accurately report the value of any comp time that may need to be included and reported to the Comptroller General’s Office in the future.

Status of Prior Findings

18. Inquire about the status of findings reported in the Accountant’s Comments section of the engagement for the prior fiscal year to determine if the agency has taken appropriate corrective action.

We found no exceptions as a result of the procedures.

Minutes

19. We will inspect the Commission’s approved minutes beginning with the end date of prior year fieldwork through the end of our fieldwork.

We found no other matters related to our procedures.
